

Indiemaker, in one page.

Everything below is published on indiemaker.com/press and dated.
Anything not on this sheet has not been published; please do not infer it.

WHAT IT IS	A platform for buying and selling digital assets, side projects and micro internet businesses.
WHAT IT IS NOT	Not a broker and not an agency. Indiemaker does not represent either side, negotiate on their behalf, or take a position in a deal. Transfers are owner to owner. The platform supplies the standard data, the record and the process.
MARKET SERVED	Digital assets and micro businesses in the $1K to $500K range. The bracket below the one traditional M&A and broker fees can serve economically.
ASSET TYPES	Micro-SaaS, mobile apps, websites, newsletters, domains and side projects.
WHAT WE VERIFY	Listings are checked for completeness and reachability before they go live. Revenue, costs, customer numbers and traffic are declared by the owner and not independently verified. The full position, including what we cannot check and why, is on the trust page. Please link there rather than paraphrasing this row.
FOUNDER	Beverley, founder of Indiemaker – beverley.io , @atomicbev Attribution is “Beverley, founder of Indiemaker”. Please do not publish a surname. See the usage note in the media kit.
